The Fifth Sunday after Trinity (St. James the Great)

July 24, 2011

This Sunday we welcome back to St. John's Fr Rick Buechner, Rector of All Saints' Church in Thomasville, Georgia.

Continuation of Fr. Ralston's sermon for the Feast of Pentecost in 1999

THE COMFORTER IS COME

(II) Jesus states this as the absolute condition of life in him—that is, of being a Christian: “If a man love me...” This does not mean having sentimental affections about Jesus. It means adhering in all truth of mind, in all integrity of will, and in all passion of heart to the kind of thing Christ is. It means both the inward and the outward imitation of him.

Without love for Christ we cannot keep his commandment to love one another. We are very ignorant and imperfect lovers. His love for us creates our love for him. The order of priority is categorically strict. Christianity is not having the words of Jesus on our lips, saying “Lord, Lord” from morning ‘till night. Christianity is only one thing. It is sharing in the substance of the Saviour, and that living substance is his life of love.

Why do we speak of our communion with the Lord as an act of eating and drinking his very body and blood? Why do we pray to be filled with his grace and heavenly benediction? Why do we ask for him to dwell in us and for us to dwell in him?

All these are metaphors and modes of union, not feeling. If you love Jesus you will keep his commandments and heed his words. No true lover has ever wanted anything but to please the beloved. St. Augustine knows all about it: “Love God, and do what you please.” If you love God your pleasure will be to do what pleases Him. Your own sweet will will be the will of heaven, and what God wills for you will be your joy and delight and freedom and blessedness.

(III) And there is more. Love is the very means of our union with God. We must always remember: Christianity is finally not about Christ. Jesus did not come to reveal himself. He came to reveal God. He spoke of himself as the way to God, the truth of God, and life in God. Above everything else Christianity is the truth about God. The greatest evidence of the presence of the Holy Spirit is the realization of God the Holy Trinity. This is the truth which perhaps could not be borne at the first, and it took hundreds of years to realize it fully. The story of the body of Christ coming to this measure of fullness of the knowledge of God which is her and our eternal life is a chronicle of wonder and mystery. It is the unique gift of the Holy Spirit.

Christianity, then, is first of all the truth about God. Loving Jesus, the Word of God Incarnate – abiding in Christ – is the one true and sure way for us to come to know and be in union with God Himself: “My Father is greater than I.” Jesus states: “The prince of this world cometh and has nothing in me.” He means no communion, no sharing. The logic of his kingdom is the power of love. Force is the antithesis of love, its polar opposite. Jesus is unmistakable about it: “My Kingdom is not of this world.”

“As the Father giveth me commandment, so I do.” This is the plainest statement, not only that God is in Christ, but how He was. It is through the Holy Ghost, the giver of love. Jesus is the Christ because of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit is the energy which binds together the Father and the Son, and binds up our loves in them.

NEW HYMN OF THE MONTH

“All my hope on God is founded” is one of the most popular hymns in the Church of England. Based on a hymn by Joachim Neander (1650-80), it was written by the poet Robert Bridges (1844-1930) and provided with a tune written by Herbert Howells in 1930.
