AS IN ADAM ALL DIE

The ceremony that gives the first day of Lent its traditional name, Ash Wednesday, speaks to the heart of the gospel. Ashes are imposed on the foreheads of the faithful by the priest, who says, "Remember O man, that dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return" – a form of words derived from God's judgment on Adam's disobedience, Genesis 3:19. With those words we acknowledge our solidarity with sinful Adam, and the death both spiritual and physical that is the wages justly paid for our disobedience to God, the source of all life. Yet, precisely in acknowledging the justice of God's judgment against us, we appeal for his mercy to save us from ourselves: "Turn thou us, O good Lord, and so shall we be turned". This dust can only live again if God himself converts us to himself and reforms us by his Word. And so our repentance is a plea for spiritual resurrection, through the perfect obedience of Christ. "As in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall be made alive" (1 Corinthians 15:22).

LENTEN DISCIPLINE

In the Forty Days that begin on Ash Wednesday, the faithful take upon themselves the corporate disciplines commended by Christ (Matthew 6:1-18): fasting and abstinence, almsgiving and prayer. Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of fasting (no food until evening and then a plain and modest meal). The other weekdays of Lent are days of abstinence (customarily from flesh meat, together with moderation in other pleasures). The sick and infirm, the very young and very old, those engaged in heavy labour, are dispensed from the fasting rule; but they should take such opportunities as they may have to deny themselves in other ways.

PLEASE REMEMBER YOUR CHURCH IN YOUR WILL

In fasting and abstinence we learn to deny ourselves; in giving alms we grow in love of neighbor; in prayer we may grow in love for God; and it is only by learning self-denial that we may truly love neighbor and God. These are not good works meriting salvation, but "fruits meet for repentance" (Matthew 3:8), in keeping with amendment of life. In them our repentance in thought (contrition) and word (confession) becomes repentance in deed (satisfaction). In gratitude for the unmerited mercy freely given by God to those who repent and believe the Gospel of his Son, we seek in these disciplines to die to sin and rise again to holiness and righteousness of life, leading lives worthy of the one who died and rose for us. *"The Word of God in Worship –
Cranmer's Common Prayer and Why the Church Needs it Today."*

Speaker: Fr Dunbar

ENGLISH SPEAKING UNION
SUNDAY 19TH AT 4:00 P.M.

In the Ralston Room John M. McCardell, Jr., Vice Chancellor of The University of the South (Sewanee), will speak on "The Civil War and American Historical Memory." Meeting open to all.

Like any other good thing, the works of repentance can be corrupted (see Isaiah 58). Here is a protest against the empty formalism of the outward act without amendment of life and conversion of heart:

*Is this a Fast, to keep
The Larder clean?
And clean
From fat of veals and sheep?
Is it to quit the dish
Of flesh, yet still
To fill
The platter high with fish?
Is it to fast an hour,
Or ragg'd to go
Or show
A downcast look and sour?
No: 'tis a Fast to dole
Thy sheaf of wheat
And meat
Unto the hungry soul,
It is to fast from strife
And old debate,
And hate;
To circumcise thy life.
To show a heart grief-rent;
To starve thy sin,
Not bin;
And that's to keep thy Lent.*
